Summer Place is Pitt County's newest development, located in Grimesland. This new neighborhood is located just minutes away from the newer Walmart on Highway 33 in addition to a Food Lion and some locally owned restaurants. From there, it is a short commute to ECU's main campus and the growing Uptown Greenville scene with more locally owned shops and eateries. Since Summer Place is in Grimesland, it is in the G.R. Whitfield elementary and middle schools, which feed into the popular D.H. Conley High School district.
