About Murphy

Named for Archibald Murphey, a visionary 19th-century leader and champion of public education and infrastructure in North Carolina, The Murphy floorplan is designed with purpose, practicality, and everyday comfort in mind.

This well-appointed home features four bedrooms, offering space and flexibility for families of all sizes. The spacious primary suite is a true retreat, complete with a large walk-in closet and the option for a tray ceiling for added elegance. Three additional bedrooms share access to a centrally located hall bathroom, making it easy to accommodate family, guests, or a home office setup.

The heart of the home is the open-concept kitchen, which flows seamlessly into the dining area and
